Results

1. On Sunday, April 29, 1991, at la Arena Coliseo, there was a title change. The trio team of "los Movie Stars" Octagon, Atlantis, and Mascara Sagrada, defeated los Thundercats (Leono, Tigro, and Pantro) to win the Mexican national Trios Championships. That "los Movie Stars" tag is my name, not theirs. But any coincidence that this trio that won is the trio making the movies this year? ... It was describe in the paper as "una magnifica lucha," which is rare praise from the reporter Arturo Rosas.
2. On Saturday, April 29, 1991, at la Pista Arena Revolucion, in Mexico City, Fuerza Guerrera retained his NWA World Welterweight Championship by defeating Huracan Sevilla. The paper says the reason sevilla lost is that he did not wrestle like a tecnico but like a rudo (punches, kicks, etc.) and Fuerza was better at this than Sevilla.

News

1. Senor Carlos Maynes officially announced on 5/1/91 that el Gigante Guerrero has been named as the official number one contender for Canek's UWA World Heavyweight Title. We will see a match from them on Sunday, May 12, 1991, at el Toreo.
2. Senor Carlos Maynes officially announced on 5/1/91 that The Pegasus Kid and The Blue Blazer have signed contracts, and that both will return to Mexico for a tour beginning May 5! el Villano V has issued a challenge already to the Pegasus Kid for the WWF light heavyweight title; recently so did el Villano III and el Perro Aguayo.
3. Senor Antonio Pena officially announced on 5/1/91 that the EMLL has been granted its next tour of dates in la Arena Mexico, and the first Friday in will officially be Friday, May 24, 1991.
4. The EMLL announced on 5/1/91 that the following midgets have been signed for a second tour of Puerto Rico: Mascarita Sagrada, Espectrito, and Piratita Morgan. They will be joined by these midgets who will be making their initial tour: Octagoncito, Pequeno Pierroth, Medio Kilo, Pequeno Cobarde, and Gemelitos Diablo. The tour will begin on May 10, 1991.
5. The EMLL recently had a two-hour special on Channel 9 in Mexico City; it went over well enough that they are considering another one, especially to feature Octagon, Atlantis, Satanico, Fuerza Guerrera, Pierroth junior, Mil Mascaras, el Hijo del Santo, los Brazos, Canek, and el Gran Davis. (I think putting these wrestlers on from the UWA is like Vince in 1983; these are the guys the EMLL wants back and is willing to give them the TV time if it'll get them.)
6. Mil Mascaras is returning for a tour of Guatemala for the first time since 1976, when he won the Guatemalan version of the World heavyweight Championship before 42,000 fans at the "Estadio Futbol de Guatemala" from Jose Azzary in a 30-man tournament final. He says he hasn't gone back because the promoters there have not offered him enough money, but now they are. He claims he made $10,000 US for that one day tournament. (I highly doubt that figure, but who knows.)
7. Cien Caras debuted in 1974.
8. Luchadora Selene's full name is Juana Ines de la Cruz.
9. Luchador Ricky Boy took his ring name and his gimmick (Wrestling playboy) directly from watching Rick Rude on US Television!

LATEST MEXICO RESULTS

I. The UWA at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos

Sunday, May 5, 1991

1. THE MAIN EVENT: Canek defeated el Gigante Guerrero two falls to one to retain his UWA World Heavyweight Wrestling Championship when el Gigante Guerrero was disqualified in the third fall due to the outside interference of The Blue Blazer, who was el Gigante Guerrero's second during this match. (Canek's second was his brother, el Principe Maya, and the referee was el Fresero.) Canek was said to weigh 125 kg (276 lbs-ha ha) and el Gigante Guerrero was said to weigh 170 kg (375 lbs. Yeah) Blazer jumped off the top rope while el Gigante Guerrero had Canek in a piledriver position resulting in a spike piledriver on Canek for the disqualification. This was a surprise to the fans because el Gigante Guerrero had wrestled like a tecnico the last three or four matches at el Toreo and The Blue Blazer wrestled as a tecnico in the "especial" match of the night.
2. The Semifinal: Enrique Vera, Silver King, and el Fantasma defeated The Black Power, el Indomito, and el Negro Casas two falls to one. No other details given except that for most of the match the tecnico team wrestled like rudos.
3. The Especial: The Blue Blazer, el Villano III, and el Villano V defeated The Pegasus Kid, el Signo, and Rambo, two falls to one in a match that totally focused on el Villano V and The Pegasus Kid ripping at each other's masks to begin their feud which will end with el Villano V winning the WWF World Light Heavyweight Wrestling Championship from The Pegasus Kid in about three to four Sundays from now.
4. The Tercera: Dos Caras, Tinieblas, and el Hijo de Tinieblas defeated Fishman, The Killer, and Doctor Wagner junior two falls to one via disqualification in the third fall. The reporter said "This match was good, but (we) were hoping for more."
5. The Segunda: Kato Kung Lee II and el Celestial (could this be "Kendo" under a mask? I do not know) defeated el Zar and el Angel de la Muerte two falls to one in Kato Kung Lee II's official debut match in Mexico City.
6. The Inicial: los Mohicanos I and II and el Hijo del Diablo defeated los Matematicos I, II, and IV two falls to one.

II. The UWA at la Arena Nezahualcoyotl in Estado de Mexico

1. The main event was a hair versus hair match and el Rayo Tapatio I defeated el Savillano two falls to one in a bloody battle.

4. The Inicial: Midgets: la Filly Estrella and Arturito versus el Gran Nikolay and el Pequeno Goliath.
